

This is an outrageous abuse of the public airwaves. Sinclair Broadcasting should not air this blantly partisan ad as if it were just another TV show when it is really a free commercial designed to smear John Kerry. The abuse of the public's trust proves that Sinclair Broadcasting should not have its license renewed and should be penalized now.